

OFFICERS MESS RECORDS PROUDLY PRESENTS

DEXTER STRANGEWAYS

Hi $%Name%

Hope you are suitably well. I would like to introduce to you the most enchanting sound of 2013. Please find enclosed the information and download links for Dexter Strangeways' debut release Bodies which is released exclusively on officersmessrecords.com on April 8th and fully released on April 15th across iTunes and all other major sites.

Illuminating avenues of the night with shimmering torch-songs is the enigmatic Alternative ballad singer Dexter Strangeways. North London-based Dexter's unique brand of post-modernism draws parallels with Scott Walker, Nick Cave, Dean Martin and David Lynch. The eclectically atmospheric single Bodies is a sinisterly swoon-some 21st Century ballad and is an example of music noir at its finest.

- A) Bodies
- B) Stop Haunting Me
- B2) O Silence

Dexter's intrepid mélange of shadowy art-rock music and neo-crooner sophistication is inescapable. All in all, Dexter Strangeways is a breath of musical fresh air. Albeit a slightly chilly one.

Dear $%Name%,

I would like to introduce to you the most enchanting sound of 2013.

OFFICERS MESS RECORDS PRESENTS

ALTERNATIVE BALLAD SINGER

DEXTER STRANGWAYS

ENTER THE STRANGWAYS SHADOW REALM

AND BEAR WITNESS TO THE HAUNTING SOUNDS THEREIN

Illuminating the avenues of the night with shimmering torch-songs, the enigmatic neo-crooner: Dexter Strangeways.

Accompanied by his band & elegant string section, Dexter's unique brand of post-modernism draws parallels with Scott Walker, Nick Cave, Dean Martin and David Lynch.

Dexter's mélange of art-rock music and crooner sophistication is inescapable: A true innovator in our time. The sound and vision fringes a smokey, Lynchian shadow realm, "demon drinks and smoke screens, whispers in the night".

The grandiose concept is particularly well timed, as the music-scene re-develops its affection for bands displaying a notion of theatricality.

Officers Mess Records is proud to present Dexter Strangeways' debut E.P 'Bodies' - a vibrant concerto of the known, the unknown and the we'd rather not have known...

The eclectically atmospheric single is a sinisterly swoon-some 21st Century ballad and is an example of music noir at its finest.

Fans of Strangeways include The Pet Shop Boys who proclaimed Dexter is "how Lana Del Rey should have sounded".

COMING SOON - Dexter Strangeways performs in the film Bardo Thodal, which premières at BAFTA before screening at film festivals around the globe. “
